Community Advisory Councils

Adelaide PHN is looking for community members to join one of our three Community Advisory Councils (CACs).

If you are you aged 18 years or over, have a lived experience accessing health services for yourself or someone you care for, and want to contribute to the design and development of a better local health system - apply now!

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community members, people from CALD or refugee backgrounds, and those identifying as LGBTIQ are strongly encouraged to apply!

Applications are open now at
