

General Practice and Digital Health

Adelaide PHN provides a range of commissioned services and support activities to improve primary health care across our region with a particular focus on general practice and the use of technology to connect people to health. This report card shows how key PHN Performance Indicators relating to digital health are tracking in the Adelaide PHN region in 2019/2020.

A Snapshot of Our Region

Practice Engagement

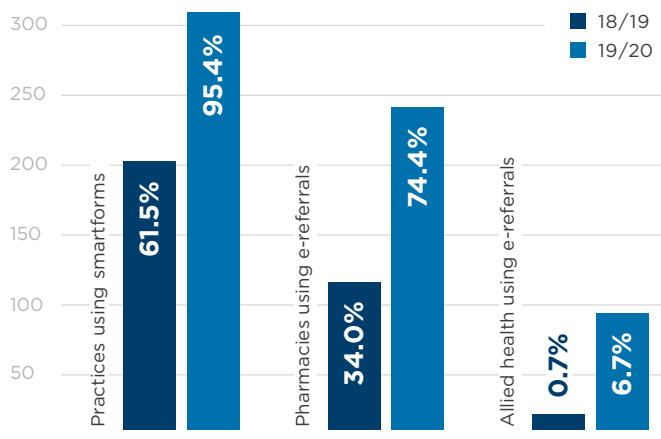

Outcome higher quality primary care

Practice Support

Digital Health

Digital health systems used in our region

✓ Outcome increased use of digital health

GP Liaison Units

As a result of partnerships between Adelaide PHN, SALHN, NALHN and CALHN, we now have...

3 GP Liaison Units focusing on improving the interface between primary and tertiary care

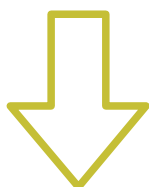

Hospital Avoidance

For enrolled Health Care Home patients attending the Lyell McEwin hospital there was a...

57% reduction in ED presentations

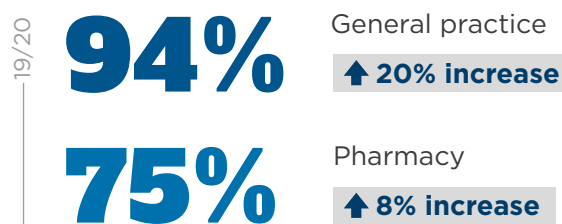

52% reduction in admissions

15% reduction in hospital stay duration

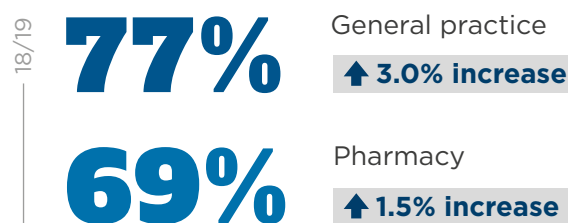

My Health Record (MyHR)

Practices and pharmacies registered with MyHR

Rate of regular uploads to MyHR

MyHR discharge summaries

35,061 18/19

↑ 166%

93,256 19/20

Accreditation

General practice accreditation was 71% in 18/19 compared to 83% in 19/20, which is a 17% increase

Accredited general practices sharing data with us has grown from 199 practices in 18/19 to 227 practices in 19/20

220 of 327 practices were participating in QI PIP during 19/20, which is 67%

✓ Outcome higher quality primary care